

The FCC has already been weakened too much. There need to be severe restrictions on the amount of media ownership allowed in any particular geographical area. The United States citizenry deserve to be aware of diverse points of view in order to protect their constitutional freedoms.

There is also a conflict of interest issue that must be addressed regarding Colin Powell and his son. Time to stand up and recognize what our forefathers dreamed of, not cave in to corporate special interests.